

Accessing the Lab

- Step 1. Make sure that the browser should support HTML5 and use Firefox (version 51 & above), Chrome (version 57 & above) and Edge (version 40 & above) to access the pods.
- Step 2. To access the HTML5 web interface, launch a browser and browse to https://vlabX.trainocate.com (X may vary based on 1, 2 or 3. Check with the trainer for exact link).

TRAINOCATE
Username
Password
Login
20811

- Step 3. The Trainer will provide the login credentials. After successful Login, you can access your POD.
- Step 4. To exit the connection use Ctrl+Alt+Shift and click podname and select Logout
- Step 5. (If needed) Use Ctrl+Alt+Shift to use the clipboard and also use the same to close the window.

\leftrightarrow \rightarrow O \textcircled{a} \odot 121.121.42.138:8080/	juacamole/#/client/cmVtb3RIIGRIc2sAVw8k2WZhdWx0
remote desk Clipboard Text colec/cut within Guacamole will appear here. the text below will affect the remote clipboard. Test User	Ludent - Fe (24 Fond ter Ho) Fe (25 Fond ter Ho) Fest User	2
Input method
None No input method is used. Keyboard input is accepted connected, physical keyboard. Text input	from a	2
Allow typing of text, and emulate

Hint: If you face any issue in viewing the contents while selecting any options, navigate to your browser settings and select full screen option and right click on the screen and select reload.

Step 6. If your lab requires to test audio or video, please right click on the audio or video icon and select disconnect and then click connect to attain the connection.

Step 7. While using Audio, make sure to allow the microphone when it prompts from the browser.